

The data used to generate these graphs comes from a survey conducted by Pew Research in the spring of 2013. Below we explain how the data shown here was abstracted from the Pew data.

Demographic Data

Religion - these data come from q55 of the survey. Note that the wording of the question, and the answers offered were different in each country.

Sect - this comes from q174 of the Pew Survey

Devout - this comes from q175 of the Pew Survey. Respondents that answered 5 times a day were coded as 'Devout', all others were coded as 'Not Devout'.

Survey Data

Should your country follow the economic model of USA/China?

This comes from Q25 of the Pew Data.

What's the best model economy for (survey country) to try to follow - a free market capitalist one such as in the United States or a state capitalist one such as in China?

Free market capitalism
State capitalism
Neither (NOT READ)
Don't know (NOT READ)
Refused (NOT READ)

Do you have a favorable opinion of USA/China?

This comes from Q9a (for the United States) and Q9c (for China) of the Pew data.

Please tell me if you have a very favorable, somewhat favorable, somewhat unfavorable or very unfavorable opinion of (INSERT)?

Very favorable
Somewhat favorable
Somewhat unfavorable
Very unfavorable
Don't know (NOT READ)
Refused (NOT READ)

So the data on our graphs indicates the percentage of respondents that answered either "Very favorable" or "Somewhat favorable".

Do you think the USA/China considers the interests of countries like yours?

This comes from Q47 (for the United States) and Q59 (for China).

In making international policy decisions, to what extent do you think the United States/China takes into account the interests of countries like (survey country) – a great deal, a fair amount, not too much, or not at all?

Great deal
Fair amount
Not too much
Not at all
Don't know (NOT READ)
Refused (NOT READ)

The data on our graph indicates the percentage of respondents that indicated either “Great deal” or “Fair amount”.

Do you consider USA/China a partner to your country?

This comes from Q119 (for China) and Q120 (for the United States).

Overall, do you think of the United States/China as more of a partner of (survey country), more of an enemy of (survey country), or neither?

More of a partner
More of an enemy
Neither
Don't know (NOT READ)
Refused (NOT READ)

The data on our graph indicates the percentage of people that said “More of a partner”.

Do you think that USA/China respects the personal freedoms of its people?

This comes from Q127b (for China) and Q127c for the United States.

Do you think the government of (INSERT) respects the personal freedoms of its people, or don't you think so?

- a. Iran
- b. China [Do not ask in China]
- c. The United States
- d. Saudi Arabia

Yes - respects personal freedoms
No – does not respect personal freedoms
Don't know (NOT READ)
Refused (NOT READ)

The data on our charts indicates the number of individuals saying “Yes”.

Do you consider USA/China a threat to your country?

This comes from Q11a (for China) and Q11b for the United States.

I'd like your opinion about some possible international concerns for (survey country). Do you think that (INSERT) is a major threat, a minor threat or not a threat to (survey country)?

- a. China's power and influence
- b. the United States' power and influence

Major threat
Minor threat
Not a threat
Don't know (NOT READ)
Refused (NOT READ)

Our charts indicate the percentage of people that responded “Major threat” or “Minor threat”